L/S. P. S. Whitehead who left New Zealand with the 11th Forestry Coy. later transferred to the Royal Navy. His experiences in several theatres include having his ship sunk under him in the Gulf of Taranto. He has recently been on furlough in New Zealand.

Other members on civilian war time assignments are:—

J. W. Ewart who was fortunate in being on leave from his post as Assistant Curator at the Botanic Gardens, Singapore, when the Japanese struck. He is now breaking in jungle land with the Department of Agriculture, Nswam, Gold Coast.

A. L. Poole, after service with the 15th Forestry Coy., is now Scientific Liaison Officer attached to the N.Z. High Commissioner’s Office, London.

C. T. Sando spent a few months in a rapid survey of accessible timber resources and supplies on most of the islands from Western Samoa to the Solomons and New Hebrides.
